CONFERENCE

VIOLENCE, SEXUALITY & EQUALITY

Policing in Partnership with Lesbians & Gay Men

*Homophobic violence and policing of sexual practices are issues that have been at the centre of many antagonisms between the lesbian and gay community and the police.
The recent serial killings investigation highlighted some of these problems.
Recently the Metropolitan Police launched their Partnership Approach. The aim is to provide improved quality of service for all groups in the community, including lesbians and gay men. The conference aims to promote discussion of these issues.*
